In Loving Memory of Ernie M. District 12 AA member and former DCM

Born May 14, 1946 Urbana, IL
Died September 9, 2011 Urbana, IL

The following is a poem that Jane, Ernie's wife, had printed on his memorial card and we'd like to give him tribute here:

Do not criticize the person in whose honor the entertainment is given.

Make no remarks about his equipment. If the handles are plated, it is best to seem to not observe it.

If the odor of the flowers is too oppressive for your comfort, remember that they were not brought here for you and that the person for whom they were brought suffers no inconvenience from their presence.

Listen, with as intense an expression of attention as you can command, to the official statement of the character and history of the person in whose honor the entertainment is given; and if these statistics should seem to fail to tally with the facts in places, do not nudge your neighbor, or press your foot upon his toes, or manifest by any other sign, your awareness that taffy is being distributed.

If the official hopes expressed concerning the person in whose honor the entertainment is given are known by you to be oversized, let it pass — do not interrupt.

At the moving passages, be moved — but according to the degree of your intimacy with the parties giving the entertainment, or with the party in whose honor the entertainment is given. Where a blood relation sobs, an intimate friend should choke up, a distant friend sigh, a stranger should merely fumble sympathetically with his handkerchief. Where the occasion is military, the emotions should be graded according to military rank, the highest officer present taking precedence in emotional violence, and rest modifying their feelings according to their position in the service.

Do not bring your dog.

Thank you Ernie for your friendship and years of dedicated service work. You will be missed.
